Reflection: 30th Anniversary of the Lamb of God

This month sees the 30th Anniversary of the founding of the Lamb of God. On 9 May 1979, we recognize our 'prophetic call' and foundation. The first formal prayer meeting was not held until 8 July that year. The month of May also sees the 24th Anniversary of the founding of the Lamb of God as a National Community with locations throughout New Zealand.

Let me share just four, of many, significant things of our call and beginning thirty years ago.

1. A group of eight people had been 'exploring' community since 1975. Veronica and I and our children were a part of that group. In our journey of exploration we had a period of 'all finances in common'. We used to shop together and purchase a veritable mountain of groceries then take it by trailer to a large garage. We would worship the Lord then the children would go get what mum and dad wanted from the mountain of food and pack it for taking home. Everyone took what they needed, regardless of who had paid for it. It was fun and it was helpful. Then we moved to experiencing all living together for two short periods. The first time was about 40 kilometres outside of Christchurch in an old and somewhat run-down house [the room assigned the Foley family had a large rat sitting on the bed when we arrived late and opened the bedroom door] and the other at Kaikoura, two and a half hours drive to the north, in a large and old rambling presbytery. It was one of those places where all of the doors had large keys sitting in the locks. The problem was we had so many children that within hours the children had pretty well lost all of the keys and we needed climb through windows to access rooms! Interesting times.....

2. The above experiences were rich, but did not lead at that time to a structured 'community'. By this time I was leading the group and it grew rapidly into a charismatic prayer group. In fact so large that every Friday afternoon I came home from work early and needed move furniture out of the house so more people could get in for the evening prayer meeting. I even ended up needing to remove pictures and photographs from the walls so bodies could squeeze in. But I became disturbed by the emphasis on 'experiencing gifts' [and in those days some of it was pretty wild] so I started to talk more and more about being committed and including our children. That had an impact. I could leave the pictures on the walls, then the furniture in the house, then we started to finish before midnight! People left in droves as we talked 'being committed'. We ended up with maybe fifteen. Then in March 1979 Veronica and I moved house just a few kilometres to where we still live [No9]. That stirred a wacky 'prophet' still in our midst to declare the Lord would 'destroy' Roger and Veronica if they moved. That was it as far as the extremes of the charismatic renewal for the Foley's. We moved in March and established the remnant of the group meeting for prayer at No 9. Then the door to 'community as we know it' opened just two months later on 9 May.
3. That day I experienced a special encounter I will never forget. I was walking our old dog, Mandy, mid afternoon. I was not thinking of anything in particular, just getting home and watching for traffic as I crossed the road. Then an overpowering sense of the presence of God, the likes of which I guess I have not experienced in such a way since. It literally forced me to my knees in the middle of the road, with old Mandy still on her lead! I was oblivious to traffic; I was simply overcome with a sense of 'presence'. I 'heard' the Lord say 'Now is the time to build this community'. Full stop, nothing more. As I walked home I wondered what to do. Was I going loopy? So I put it to a stern test of discernment- I shared it with Veronica. She must have sensed something special going on here. Then two days later I called the Bishop of Christchurch and gained time with him. I shared with him about our journey since 1975, all of it, and of this 9 May experience. I asked him, what should I do? He did not laugh, he did not dismiss it. He talked of the mysterious ways of the Spirit and concluded 'Roger- if this is of God, it will grow' and he prayed a blessing over me and encouraged me to explore where it might lead.
4. And so we set into the deep. But this time with the Lord's chosen and declared time, and the Lamb of God established. The work has grown and is now nationwide and international. We are ecumenical in nature and very multi-cultural and rich in composition. We are blessed with nearly 250 youth and children. It is a substantial work of God.

To close let me share one comment I hear often but I do not like. Many people say 'oh are you a part of Roger Foley's community?' or 'Lamb of God was founded by Roger'. NO- read again what I have said. Yes we were searching and I was a part of that. But the Lord raised the Lamb of God and He did it in His timing. It was and is and hopefully always will be His work – not to be credited to the work of any man.

Many of you know that my prayer has always been that one day I will shuffle into our prayer meeting, maybe with a walking stick, and Veronica and I will simply enjoy being there with our brothers and sisters, and our grandchildren and great grandchildren. And I trust I will see men and women taking us forward who would also respond by falling to their knees in a busy street if the Lord wanted to catch their attention!

Let us move on with confidence.....

OUR PEOPLE ...

Congratulations!

- Mike and Judy Prendeville [Southern], on the birth of granddaughter Decalyn Anne born 29/12/08 to Mathew & Kaylee

Kirsten Challies [Christchurch] was out running recently and came upon a lady who looked familiar. The lady recognised Kirsten as from the Lamb of God and stopped her to say what a wonderful job the community is doing! She said that if it weren't for the Lamb of God she wouldn't have been able to go events such as our facilitating Sister Briege McKenna and Fr John Rea, which she has so appreciated. She told Kirsten "keep up the good work". Encouraging.....

Maureen Lyons [Christchurch] is one of those faithful people who get on with quietly serving without fanfare, notice and few if any public thanks. Maureen joined Lamb of God in her teenage years and is now married and she and husband Chris are raising six wonderful children. She serves on the Mainly Music team, at lamingtons, coffee morning ministry, in the crèche and in several other 'hidden ways'. She even gets time to pick up her guitar and lead worship at the occasional sister's event. Almost every Sunday evening as I sit at my desk to look at my priorities for the upcoming week, I get 'pinged' in my email in-box by Maureen. It is a full electronic transcript of the prophetic word declared at the Christchurch Community Gathering that afternoon. It amazes me how Maureen does it! It must be gone 6.00pm before she gets home from the meeting. Then sit down and watch TV and relax? No. There is a busy household with six children, meals, getting children ready for bed, preparing school lunches, getting clothes ready and so much more. Maureen has been typing up the prophecy for many years now and she does it by taking the audio tape each week and transcribing it. Not an easy task. She has only taken two small breaks following the births of Charlotte and Felicity. Thank you, Maureen and Chris - I for one am inspired by such faithful and 'hidden' service. Such service inspires me. Roger

BISHOP VICTORIA MATTHEWS ON CHRISTIAN WITNESS

Victoria Matthews [Anglican Bishop of Christchurch] speaking at a Men's Breakfast in Christchurch last month:

'If you are not a Christian and yet you have a spiritual hunger- which I think is just a definition of being a human being- and you are surrounded by Christians who never speak of their faith, and who go out of their way to act as if it makes no difference to them, would you ever go to church? If you spend your time with Jesus, then people should be asking you about what makes you tick. It should show in your place of work, your family and in your church. If someone says to you "are you worried about such-and-such" you should be able to say "Yes, I'm worried but I've been praying about that and I think I have been able to hand it over"- well wouldn't that be an incredible testimony to someone who wasn't a Christian to hear? To be able to speak of the relationship that is ours with Christ, if we could do that there wouldn't be enough pews in any church in the diocese.'

SOUTH ISLAND BRANCH SERVICE TEAM

In March leaders from our South Island Branches [Nelson, Blenheim, Christchurch and Southern] formed a Service Team to advance and better coordinate the works of all Lamb of God Centres in the South Island. The Service Team is to comprise the following men- Robert Van Doorn, Mark Challies and John Murray [Christchurch], Terry Westbury [Nelson], Mike Cullimore [Blenheim], Mike Prendeville [Southern] and will be coordinated by Roger. The Service Team is comprised of mainly younger leaders and this is seen as a way to prepare for the future to ensure our works move ahead.

'CHALLENGES IN LIVING TOGETHER AS COMMUNITY'

Resource for House Group Discussion by Roger Foley

'Ephesians 4, verse 2... Is this possible?'

May/2009

Ephesians 4, verses 1-6

'As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit- just as you were called to one hope when you were called, one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.'

Key Book for building Christian Community

*Ephesians 4 and following - the word reveals the way to unity in a world that needs help, it is practical teaching for us today

* V2: 'Be completely humble and gentle, be patient, bearing with one another in love.'

How does this speak to us today?

*A humility that comes from our relationship with Jesus as Lord

*Being aware of our own 'nothingness' outside of the Lord working in us

*The opposite of 'nothingness' is conceit and arrogance

*We need a 'gentleness' and a 'lowliness'

*We need a disposition/spirit of patience under [prolonged] provocation

Bearing with one another in love

*Making allowance for the faults and failures of others, or for different personalities, abilities and temperaments

*Must not be a facade of courtesy whilst inwardly resenting the person

*It means positive love to those who irritate, disturb, or even embarrass

Discussion starters:

1. How do you go in 'bearing' with others 'in love'- easy or difficult?
2. Would you welcome others sent by the elders to add your group - or do you have a difficulty 'bearing' with some folk?
3. If you think you would have a difficulty- can you reason why?

Prayerwatch - Soldiers Of Christ, Arise!

There is much power in the Blood of the Lamb. "The next day John saw Jesus coming towards him and said, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!" John 1: 29. John the Baptist calling Jesus the "Lamb of God" takes us back to Exodus 12: when the Israelites were called to leave Egypt by celebrating the first Passover. The killing of the Passover Lamb and the sprinkling of it blood on the doorposts and lintels of the Israelites homes was protection from the angel of death that affected the Egyptians causing the death of their first born. Isaiah 53: also mentions the Lamb and being healed and made whole by his stripes from sorrows, sickness and pain. The protection of the Lamb's Blood over the Israelites in Egypt foreshadowed the death of Jesus Christ, the Son of God as a sacrificial Lamb with His blood being shed to cleanse all mankind from sin [1 John 1: 7-9]. Jesus' blood shed on the cross has reconciled us to God our Father [Colossians 1: 19-20]. By Jesus giving his blood as a sacrifice in his death on the cross he conquer Satan and death so it is through his Blood that we also conquer Satan and death and have life eternal [Revelations 12: 11]. As the Blood was a sign for the Israelites in Egypt so we need to acknowledge that Jesus' Blood cleanses us of sin and reconciles us with God. Our faith needs to be put in Jesus so the enemy cannot touch our lives which are washed in the Blood and are covered and protected by His Blood when we believe in Jesus.

If you have any comments or questions concerning the Prayerwatch then please send them to me at alan.mckenzie@clear.net.nz or give them to one of your branch leaders to send to me. God bless and watch over you all.
